Story Starters!

Each rectangle has a story starter. Use them to write (or tell) a creative story that starts with that beginning!

Cut each 'Story Starter' out, place them in a jar/bag and pick them out one-at-a-time.

You can do this on your own, with a friend, or even a family member. Are your stories similar or different? You can even co-write or co-tell the story, going back and forth every few sentences!

Scott looked around the dimly lit room and noticed...

Liza could not stop laughing when...

I had a dream last night that I had a superpower where I could...

I stepped outside and saw Noot on my doorstep...

There was a howl that came from the forest...

I woke up inside Crystal Caverns and found...

He/she was hiding under the bed...

My teacher took away all of our classroom rules today, so we...

They looked down and saw that their feet were stuck in...

When I woke up and found $100 under my pillow, I...

"Stop! Don't eat that! It has... "

"It's time to go!" The wizard shouted through...

Facts and Opinions

Come up with a fact and opinion for each of these topics. Remember: a fact is something that is true and cannot be changed, and an opinion describes how a person feels, or what they believe.
